appointed as follows: E. M. Yerger, W. B. Taylor, B. T Ligon, J. R. Yerger, Robt. Kells, Joshua Green Thos. Helm.

The Conservatives of North Carolina have canvassers actively engaged in every county against the mongrel Constitution.

VIRGINIA .- Advices from Virginia give assurance that the Conservatives can vote down the Constitution by twenty thousand majority. The Radicals in the Mongrel Convention of Virginia, have acted on the notification of Thad. Stevens, and voted down all disfranchising propositions. General Meade's report of the re cent election in Alabama, for a Con stitution in that State, has been re ceived at army headquarters. The result is the same as that transmitted to Congress recently, showing the defeat of the Constitution.

The stirring address of Gen. Freeman, Chairman of the Democratic Executive Committee, will attract attenthe consideration of the people of the various counties.

General Buchanan, Commander of and State and Municipal officers, in Louisiana, to be held at the same time as the election on the question of ratification or rejection of the Constitu tion framed by the hybrid Convention.

The Democratic triumphs in New York continue to foreshadow of the great victory in November. Walthill elects Henry B. Ogden, Democratic candidate for Supervisor, by fifty majority. He is the first Democratic | mond, Miss .- Hinds County Gazette. Supervisor elected in thirteen years

Congress has voted to continue the Freedmens' Bureau another year. The St. Louis Democrat (ultra Radical), does not view the measure with favor; and thinks that "the action of Con-"gress looks much like admission "that its plan of reconstruction is not "likely to succeed."

It really does seem so, in view of the popular decisions In Alabama and Arkansas.

One of the results arrived at by the Tennessee Board of Immigration. is that there is a large and valuable population at the North ready to move into that State, as soon as they can be persuaded that their fears with regard to the insecurity, of life and property are unfounded, and that capital also will knock at the door in proportion has the fact can be established that the State as the will and the ability to maintain her credit.

The reaction is going ahead in the State of Pennsylvania. On the 27th inst., there was a municipal election in Harrisburg, the capital of the State. The whole Democratic ticket was chosen. At Bedford, the Democrats carried their ticket by a majority of 65 -a gain of 41 since last fall. At Titusville, the Democrats elected the Mayor and a majority of the Council. Both places have heretofore been stubbornly Radical.

We are advised that in our classification of the white counties represented by Radicals, we did injustice to Mr. Longmire, the delegate from Newton county. We are gratified to say that though not elected by the conservatives, nor acting in full affiliation with them, he decidedly opposes the extreme measures which have characterized the policy of the Radical leaders in the Convention and which have concentrated against it the entire white population of the State.

The Circuit Court of Madison county met on Monday, the 23d instant, the Hon. J. A. P. Campbell on the Bench. His Honor has, at the solicitation of the Bar, and in view of the impoverished condition of the country, wisely determined to dispense with the calling of the issue docket at this term .- Mail.
